Frequently Asked Questions

How Children Worship different from Sunday School?
Unlike Sunday School, which relies on a dedicated teacher, Children Worship functions as a worship service for kids. It emphasizes worship, parental involvement, and short interactive segments rather than a traditional classroom model.

What about families with children of different ages?
For families with multiple children, we encourage older siblings (ages 10-12) to assist younger ones. Parents can also help with younger children if needed.

Will there be a structured curriculum?
Yes, there will be an all-in-one curriculum, keeping Bible stories short (10 minutes) and activities engaging (10 minutes) to maintain children's attention.

How will Children Worship prepare kids for adult worship?
Because this format mirrors the structure of a church service, it naturally prepares children to transition into the adult service at age 12. They will already be familiar with key worship elements like singing, prayer, and offering.
