Getting Started

Guide to using the NEXT website: navigation, setup, and essentials.

- Welcome

Welcome

Welcome to NEXT, our church's internal knowledge base dedicated to equipping and nurturing the NEXT generation of leaders and coworkers.

NEXT is more than just a website—it's a vision, a commitment, and a journey. As our church looks forward, we recognize the importance of passing on our faith, wisdom, and experience to those who will carry the mission forward. Whether you are a new coworker, a growing leader, or someone eager to serve, this platform is designed to support and guide you.

What is NEXT?

NEXT is both the name of our coworker retreat and the heart behind this resource hub. It stands for our dedication to developing the next generation in ministry and service. Here, you'll find essential resources, training materials, best practices, and guidance to help you grow in your role and contribute effectively to the church's mission.

What You'll Find Here:

- Training Materials – Practical guides and resources to equip you for your role.
- Leadership Development – Insights and wisdom from experienced mentors.
- Ministry Guidelines – Best practices for serving in various church ministries.
- Collaborative Learning – A space to share knowledge and learn from one another.
- Spiritual Growth – Resources to deepen your faith and walk with Christ.

NEXT is built for you—our current and future church leaders. We invite you to explore, learn, and engage in this shared journey of faith and service.

Together, let's invest in the NEXT generation.
