Serving as Chair □□□

A chairperson guides the flow of worship with clarity, reverence, and a welcoming spirit.

Qualifications

1. Must be a born-again, baptized Christian and a member of this church.
2. Must love the Lord, pursue spiritual growth, serve humbly, and be committed to the church.
3. Must have attended worship services at this church for over two years, possess a good knowledge of the Bible, and have a mature understanding of God.
4. Must be faithful, discerning, and have good conduct and testimony.
5. Must be clear in speech and expression, and recognized by pastors and ministry coworkers.

Guidelines

1. Arrive at church 30 minutes early to prepare your heart and emotions.
2. Dress neatly, respectfully, and appropriately; casual attire is not suitable. Women’s skirts should be below the knee, and revealing clothing should be avoided.
3. Pray with the choir and pastors before the worship service begins.
4. Familiarize yourself thoroughly with the Scripture reading beforehand to avoid errors or stumbling.
5. Check the microphone, PowerPoint, and sound system to ensure they are working properly.
6. Keep the offering prayer brief and focused.
7. Review announcement items ahead of time and report them clearly and concisely.
8. Clearly welcome new visitors to the church; do not skip or rush through it.
