Serving as Usher □□□□□

An usher warmly welcomes attendees, maintains order, and supports a smooth worship experience.

Qualifications

1. Must be a born-again, baptized Christian and a member of this church.
2. Must have attended worship services at this church for over a year, be committed to the church, and regularly participate in Sunday services and small group meetings.
3. Must not engage in behaviours that clearly violate biblical principles, such as cohabitation before marriage, extramarital affairs, etc. Must uphold a holy marriage and agree with and follow the Bible's teaching on marriage of one man and one woman.
4. If a person displays a poor testimony and repeatedly fails to correct it after counsel, the church reserves the right to suspend their service.

Guidelines

1. Arrive at church 20 minutes early to prepare your heart and emotions.
2. Dress neatly, appropriately, and respectfully; casual attire is not suitable. Women's skirts should be below the knee, and revealing clothing should be avoided.
3. Welcome and greet every brother, sister, and guest with a smile.
4. Check the sanctuary for cleanliness and remove any unnecessary items.
5. Neatly arrange the free literature on the long table at the entrance, maintain the church's tidiness, and avoid giving new visitors a bad impression.
6. Prepare visitor information forms and pens. When new friends arrive, warmly and proactively care for them, guide them to their seats, and assign a brother or sister to accompany them. Ask if they are willing to leave their contact information and name. If they agree, have them fill out the form and give it to the service leader.
7. If visitors have children, kindly invite them to participate in the Children's Sunday Worship.
8. Encourage and direct parents with infants to sit in the upstairs nursery room.
9. Pay special attention to elderly brothers and sisters, assisting them to their seats as needed.
10. When seating attendees, encourage everyone to sit closer to the front and center.
11. After worship begins, gently close the rear doors and sit at the back to receive any latecomers.
12. If friends arrive late during the service, quietly guide them to appropriate seats without disrupting the service. If the pastor is praying, ask them to wait until the prayer ends before entering the sanctuary.
13. Handle unexpected situations during the service, such as bringing noisy children outside to their parents.
14. Coordinate the orderly distribution of communion elements.
15. If you are unable to serve as scheduled, please find a replacement yourself and get approval from the service leader on duty.
