Serving in Audio and Visual □□□

An AV team member ensures smooth and clear audio-visual support for worship with excellence and attentiveness.

Watch the AV training video for an eight-section walkthrough of equipment setup, sound checks, slides, cameras and livestreaming.

Qualifications

1. Must be a born-again, baptized Christian and a member of this church.
2. Must have attended worship services at this church for over a year, be committed to the church, and regularly participate in Sunday services and small group meetings.
3. Must have a burden and gifting for music ministry and be willing to commit to the worship team service.
4. Must not engage in behaviors that clearly violate biblical principles, such as cohabitation before marriage or extramarital affairs. Must uphold holy marriage and agree with the biblical teaching of one man and one woman in marriage.
5. If a member displays poor testimony and repeatedly fails to correct it after counsel, the church reserves the right to suspend their service.

Guidelines

- Arrive at church 30 minutes early to check the computer, equipment, and the day's PowerPoint/Google slides.
- Ensure smooth transitions during the service by controlling microphone volumes, projector output, and Google slide transitions.
- Check microphones with the praise team and remind them to maintain appropriate distance from the mics.
